

Diversity of media resources is part and parcel of the intent of the free press mentioned in our bill of rights. I do not support regulation revisions encouraging further consolidation of ownership.